PRODUCTS

1. Akratos Oenos (wine) with natural winemaking

Our ancestors had two types of wine. The akratos oenos, which could be preserved for years without chemicals (sulfites) and the kekramenos oenos which they drank. The kekramenos oenos was called wine.

The high in alcohol organic 'akratos oenos' by Helession has been made by red, natural vinification with wild/native yeast. No sulfites, taste additives or colors have been added. It has undergone neither protein precipitation nor filtering!

Thus almost all polyphenols (luteolin, resveratrol, OPC) have passed into the wine body. Therefore, it forms part of the Mediterranean diet and of French paradox. Helession's products from grape proved to be a very strong shield of health.

4. Kekramenos Oenos (Wine)

Helession's Akratos Oenos, when mixed with Hedylli, gives us Kekramenos Oenos, what we call wine nowadays.

By using Hedylli and VeganHoney, every friend of wine can create his/her wine, as strong and as sweet as he/she wants it!

Akratos Oenos + Hedylli = Wine (Kekramenos Oenos)

As light as you want the wine with Hedylli

As sweet as you want the wine with VeganHoney!

After 35 years of research, the Community of Helession revived Ancient Greek Oenos, and created four magnificent, innovative products that over succumb the demands of biological farming, they have no sulfite preservatives, they are tasty, and they are preserved and ameliorated through the years!
